

Volunteers must work collaboratively with girls, other volunteers, staff and Girl Scout families to instill high standards of ethics and promote the development of courage, confidence and character, and other important life skills.

It is important that all GSSOAZ volunteers understand the mission of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, The Promise and Law, and mentor girls using these values.

GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

*On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.*

GIRL SCOUT LAW

*I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and
responsible for what I say and do,
and to
respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and
be a sister to every Girl Scout.*

The following are expected of Girl Scout volunteers:

- The volunteer will adhere to the Girl Scout Promise and Law.
- The volunteer will treat all girls and adults with respect and not complain, argue or engage in verbal or physical threats.
- The volunteer will be courteous of all other adults, GSSOAZ staff members, and girls while creating a positive and inclusive scouting environment.
- The volunteer will refrain from profanity, disrespectful conduct, and the use or possession of alcohol*, illegal drugs or tobacco (including vaporizer pens and e-cigarettes) in front of Girl Scouts or while representing Girl Scouts of Southern Arizona. *The use of alcohol may be permitted at council-approved adult fund raising functions with the prior approval from the CEO.
- The volunteer will actively engage girls in the planning of troop experiences.
- The volunteer will work with other volunteers to create a dynamic girl experience while sharing responsibilities.
- The volunteer will not bring other children to Girl Scout meetings unless otherwise decided by the troop members.
- The volunteer will ensure that troop resources are only used for active Girl Scout members.
- The volunteer will register as a Girl Scout member and complete the volunteer process, including annual renewal of their background check.
- The volunteer will support girls by being prepared and coming to meetings on time.
- The volunteer is responsible for staying informed and will read communications from caregivers and Girl Scouts of Southern Arizona.
- The volunteer will maintain an accurate roster and ensure that that all members are registered.

Failure to follow the Code of Conduct will result in one or more of the following corrective actions:

- Review of Code of Conduct with a Girl Scouts of Southern Arizona staff member.
- Written warning issued by Girl Scouts of Southern Arizona.
- Removal from the troop and/or program and revocation of membership from Girl Scouts of Southern Arizona.

By signing this document, I commit to adhering to the above Code of Conduct.

PRINTED NAME

TROOP #

X

SIGNATURE

DATE